

MUNICIPAL FAST FOOD DRIVE-THROUGH BANS ACROSS CANADA

Bylaws that ban or limit fast food drive-through services are one way to create healthier food environments and combat rising obesity rates in Canada

GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION OF ADOPTERS

MUNICIPALITIES' STATED INTENT OF FAST FOOD DRIVE-THROUGH BANS

Protect community character

Protect local economy

Promote active transportation

Address environmental concerns

POLICY LEARNING STRATEGIES include public consultation and research and review of related policies from other municipalities

All municipalities that undertook 'policy learning' strategies to inform the bylaw adoption process were characterized as early adopters

POLICY DIFFUSION

Municipalities save time and resources when they are able to learn from existing efforts to ban drive-through services